Murder suspects denied bond following Aniah's Law hearings in Coffee County District Court

Two adult suspects charged in the Feb. 14th Elba murder of Christopher Ethan Hill remain in the Coffee County Jail with no bond following their pre-trial detention hearings last week.

Twelfth Judicial Circuit District Attorney James Tarbox said defendants Freddie McGee Jr. and Lena Michelle McGhee each appeared Thursday, Feb. 22, in the District Court of Coffee County, Elba Division, for the Aniah's Law hearings. Tarbox represented the state.

He argued that each defendant was a risk to public safety among other factors related to Aniah's Law, and they needed to be held without bond pending trial for the murder charge against each defendant. Following the presentation of testimony and evidence in each of the hearings, District Judge Josh Wilson took the matters under advisement.

The following day, Friday, Feb. 23, Judge Wilson issued orders denying bond to each defendant. Both defendants will be held at the Coffee County Jail without the right to pre-trial release.

A third suspect, a 17-year-old juvenile, also is charged in this murder case.

Elba City Councilman concerned over increased reports of "shots being fired" in Mulberry area

During the Elba City Council meeting Monday evening, Feb. 26, District One councilman Johnathan Lockett said he is concerned over an apparent increase in "shots fired" reports in the Mulberry area recently.

Lockett told his fellow councilmembers the reports of gun shots being fired has increased again recently. With the recent shooting death of a 24-year-old man, Lockett said this is a real concern for that area of the city.

"I have advised the citizens in the Mulberry area to call and report it when they hear gunshots being fired at any time," councilman Lockett said. "So, if there is an increase in those type reports, it will be because I have suggested it."

Lockett said he did not know any other way to address the issue other than having citizens call authorities any time they hear guns being fired.

Council members agreed with Lockett's suggestion for citizens. Also, during Monday night's council meeting, Interim Police Chief Shayne Arnett introduced two new officers to the council. One has been working with Elba for a few weeks now, and the other just started this week.

The newest hire will be attending the police academy soon, Arnett said.

The chief said the new hires would be a welcome addition to the department's staff, which has been down recently due to some medical-related issues for several officers.

A music educator of over 45 years, Troy University Professor Emerita of music and music education Dr. Diane Orlofsky was recognized for her years of service and was officially inducted into the Alabama Music Educators Association Hall of Fame recently in Claudia Crosby Theatre.

The AMEA Hall of Fame recognizes members for excellence in teaching or administration; contributions and improvements to the field of music education; the betterment of the profession through exemplary service or acts; professional offices, professional publications, awards, or performances; and those with exceptional professional ideals and academic integrity.

The award was presented during the Troy University Symphony Band 51st annual concert by Dr. Rob Lyda, AMEA president, and Dr. Phil Wilson, AMEA president-elect, both former Trojans and students of Orlofsky.

"It gives us both great pleasure to be able to come home tonight and honor our teacher," Lyda said. "The first time I met Dr. Orlofsky, I must admit I was a little afraid of her because she had a reputation of being tough and challenging. She was the type of professor that would make you work, and work hard."

"I came to find her to be an exceptional professor that did challenge you, that did make you work hard, that made you think," he added. "Throughout my career she has been a mentor—giving sage advice—a collaborator on research projects and a colleague, and now I can say a dear friend."

The Shock of Loss

The passing of a loved one is hard to grasp. Even if you were prepared for your loved one's passing due to a long illness, the finality of death can still feel very sudden and shocking.

You may think you should be feeling the emotions typically associated with grief such as sadness, anger, regret, or loneliness - but instead, you may feel nothing at all. Others around you may also wonder why you aren't crying or feeling intense emotions.

You may find yourself feeling numb. You may feel like you are detached from reality or that you are living in a dream. Interactions with others may feel blurred or hazy. This is because your body is in shock and this numbness is your body's way of protecting itself from trauma.

The shock of loss can also affect you in other ways. For example, you may have trouble sleeping at night because you find yourself constantly thinking, or you may even forget about your loss for periods of time until someone brings it up or asks how you are doing.

You may also feel physical symptoms associated with your shock such as headaches, stomach aches, heart palpitations, jumpiness, and exhaustion.

Know that all these experiences are perfectly normal. However, while you are in shock consider allowing others to help as much as possible. Eventually, after a few days, weeks, or even months, those intense feelings of grief will begin to break through. It may happen when you least expect it.

In the meantime, recognize that shock is a natural part of the grieving process, and it doesn't happen the same way for everyone. It's also OK to tell friends and family members what you are feeling and going through at that very moment. Finding a trusted confidant to talk with can help you start to process your feelings.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Sister gave the Yonder Gang a bit of an unexpected scare earlier this week. She began to have some eye pain Monday evening, and it was still there Tuesday morning.

So, Cuzin Lou Lou suggested Sister call the local eye doctor and go have it checked out.

Well...a short time after Sister's appointment, she sends Lou Lou a text indicating the doctor was trying to get her in with a specialist that day! That quickly got Lou Lou's attention.

"That text has me a bit worried," was Lou Lou's response.

It appeared there was something on Sister cornea situated near the pupil, and the local eye doc thought it best for a specialist to look closer and decide the best way to treat Sister's issue.

Stuck at the office, Lou Lou had to simply wait to hear back from Sister and Papa after they made the trip to the specialist.

Lou Lou was also anxious to see if Sister would return with a patch over the eye... there would definitely be "pirate photos and posts" if that were the case!

Good news was the issue seemed to be something that could heal within a couple of days after the specialist placed a "band-aid" on the cornea. If healing did not take place quickly enough, a procedure would take place and another band-aid put in place to allow proper healing. All that sounded much better than the initial fears of what might be going on!

The bad news...no patch for the pirate photos. Of course, Sister was pleased to not offer that opportunity to Lou Lou.

Oh well...thank goodness Sister is okay!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Jesus on Life

Jesus made some pretty amazing claims during His life and ministry on this planet. In regard to these, C.S. Lewis observed that Jesus was either a liar, mad man, or He was telling the truth. Here are just a few examples of the claims and statements He made about Himself.

Jesus said that he was the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14:6); the Resurrection and the Life (John 11:25); that He was the Bread of Life (John 6:35); and that He came to give abundant life (John 10:10). He also stated unequivocally that if you believe in Him you'll have eternal life (John 6:40). Pretty amazing, right?

So the real question that presses us for an answer is this: Who is Jesus? How would you answer? A liar? A mad man, perhaps a deluded fool? Or...Could He be who He claimed to be?

Your answer to this one simple question could be the most important you'll ever answer. You owe it to yourself to give it your best effort at thoughtful inquiry. What if Jesus really was telling the truth?

Celebrating Black History Month

Life of the late Jack Johnson

Early in the 20th Century, a number of talented black heavyweights came into prominence in the world of boxing, but prejudice denied them a shot at the title. They had to fight each other for small purses.

Jack Johnson, the first black man to hold the World Heavyweight Title (1910-1915) is regarded by many as the greatest fighter of them all. In a 28-year career, he lost only 7 of 114 bouts.

Johnson, of Galveston, Texas, widely considered one of the most accomplished boxers of all time, finally broke the color barrier by knocking out the reputed titleholder, Tommy Burns, at Sydney, Australia, in 1908. For Negroes everywhere, Johnson became a symbol of black power, but his flamboyant lifestyle and his marriages to two white women alienated white fans, who also resented his boxing skill. Jim Jeffries, who had retired undefeated in 1905, returned to the ring as "the great white hope," but Johnson easily defeated him in Reno, Nevada, in 1910, thus becoming the undisputed World Heavyweight Titleholder. Outrage at the black champion's ways mounted to such a pitch that in 1912 he was convicted on dubious evidence of having violated the Mann Act forbidding the transport of women across state lines for immoral purposes. Sentenced to a year in prison, he fled the country while out on bail. Johnson lost his title to Jess Willard in April 1915 in Havana, Cuba, in a 26-round knockout that was regarded by many experts as questionable.

NURSE PRACTITIONER SPEAKS TO LUNCHEON PILOTS...Candi Henderson, a Family Nurse Practitioner at Enterprise Women's Center, was a recent guest speaker at the Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise. She spoke about some of the critical screenings for women to help promote and maintain good health. Many guidelines have changed over the years, but regular screenings for breast cancer, cervical cancer, colon cancer and osteoporosis are still vital. She encouraged staying up to date on all screenings. Pictured are Fran Walters, PA Candi Henderson, and Pilot Club President, Debbie Shelton.

Request for Purchase Agreement and Proposal
The west half of the building located at 347 West Davis St. on Courthouse Square in Elba is being offered for sale by the Elba Redevelopment Authority (ERA). The building is often referred to as "The Dime Store" building and the east half is now being occupied by the Elba Chamber of Commerce.

The property will be sold as is, and the new owner will be given twelve months from closing to finish the interior and occupy the building.

The deed will reflect an agreement between the new owner and the ERA (who owns the Chamber office space) if joint repairs are required. The current roof was replaced with insurance funds in 2024 as a result of hail damage. A new roof would be an example of a shared cost expense.

Your proposal should include a plan for the use of the site, an estimated date of occupancy, and your offered purchase price. Please contact City Hall if you would like to examine the property.

Your sealed proposal must be submitted to the ERA at Elba City Hall, 200 Bu-ford St., no later than 5:00 P. M. on March 21, 2024. The ERA will consider each proposal based on monetary offer and benefit to the city. The ERA reserves the right to reject all proposals. 2/22,29,3/7&14-chg.

Luncheon Pilots hold annual Radio Day fundraiser

Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise held its annual Radio Day fundraiser on WBTF FM 94.7 and 96.3 in Troy. The Luncheon Pilot Club is part of the International Pilot Organization whose main emphasis is on helping people affected by brain related disorders.

Wiregrass merchants have once again shown their support for this major fundraiser by sponsoring radio ads that were read over the air by Luncheon Pilot Club members.

This is the major fund raiser for the club and over $10,000 was raised. These funds will be given back to the Enterprise Community to include Habitat for Humanity, BrainMinders Programs, Special Needs Christmas Party, Banana Bingo at Enterprise Nursing Home, Enterprise Anchor Club, Wiregrass Wounded Veterans Committee, Disabled Americans Veterans Transportation Project, sponsor a Coffee County resident to attend the Alabama Special Camp for Children and Adults, sponsor an individual to attend the Traumatic Brain Injury Camp, Hand Up Enterprise, Sheriff's Posse, Retirement Center Project, Coffee County Arts Alliance and other worthwhile projects that may come up during the year.

Project Lifesaver which is funded by LCPE is managed by Reserve Deputy Calvin Bookout of the Coffee County Sheriff's Department. Locator bracelets are put on individuals who are autistic or have a tendency to wander. When a caregiver notifies the sheriff's office that the individual has wandered off, they are able to track them by their bracelet, often having the potential to save lives. As many as 20 individuals are being monitored by the Sheriff's Department at any given time and each bracelet is checked monthly by Officer Bookout to replace the batteries.

Each year club members strive to conduct an educational program for second-graders in the five elementary schools in Enterprise titled, "Brain Minders-Protecting Your Brain for Life", which impacts the lives of more than 650 students.

For more information about becoming a member of the Luncheon Pilot Club, contact Gina Oates at ginaoates686@outlook.com.

STATE OF ALABAMA PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS the Alabama Legislature at its 2023 Second Special Session enacted Act No. 2023-562 (SB3), proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 2022;

WHEREAS, in conformity with Section 284 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, as amended, the Legislature has ordered an election by the qualified electors of the state upon such proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS notice of this election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor, which shall be published once a week for at least four successive weeks immediately preceding the day appointed for the election;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, as Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct, and proclaim that on Tuesday, March 5, 2024, an election will be held in the State of Alabama in the manner and form provided by law upon the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of 2022 of the State of Alabama:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED BY ACT NO. 2023-562.

"Section 71.01

(A) The following words and phrases, whenever used in this amendment, shall have the following respective meanings:

"Basic Appropriations" means, with respect to any regular session of the legislature, such appropriations as the legislature may deem appropriate for the expenditures by the state during the ensuing budget period for the ordinary expenses of the executive, legislative and judicial departments-branches of the state, for payment of the public debt, and for education (excluding, however, any item within the scope of the foregoing that is at the time provided for by a continuing appropriation or otherwise).

"Budget Period" means a fiscal year of the state or such period other than a fiscal year as may hereafter be fixed by law as the period with respect to which state budgets are prepared and state appropriations are made.

(B) On or before the second legislative day of each regular session of the legislature, beginning with the first regular session after January 1, 1983, the governor shall transmit to the legislature for its consideration a proposed budget for the then next ensuing budget period.

(C) The duty of the legislature at any regular session to make the basic appropriations for any budget period that will commence before the first day of any succeeding regular session shall be paramount; and, accordingly, beginning with the first regular session held after January 1, 1983, no bill (other than a bill making any of the basic appropriations) shall be signed by either the presiding officer of the house or senate and transmitted to the other house until bills making the basic appropriations for the then ensuing budget period shall have been signed by the presiding officer of each house of the legislature in accordance with Section 66 of this Constitution and presented to the governor in accordance with Section 125 of this Constitution; provided, that this paragraph (C) shall not affect the passage of local laws or local constitutional amendments, the adoption of resolutions, or the conduct of any other legislative functions that do not require a third reading; and provided further, that following adoption, by vote of either house of not less than three-fifths of a quorum present, of a resolution declaring that the provisions of this paragraph (C) shall not be applicable in that house to a particular bill, which shall be specified in said resolution by number and title, the bill so specified may proceed to final passage therein.

(D) Upon the signing and presentation to the governor in accordance with the said Sections 66 and 125 of bills making the basic appropriations, the provisions of the foregoing paragraph (C) prohibiting the final passage of bills in the house and senate (other than bills making any part of the basic appropriations) shall cease to be effective and shall not be revived or become again effective as a result of (i) the subsequent legislative history of any bill so signed and presented, including any veto, return with executive amendment, or any other action, or failure to act, by either the governor or the legislature under the provisions of the said Section 125; or (ii) a determination, by either judicial decree or opinion of the justices of the Alabama Supreme Court, that any bill so signed and presented is wholly or in part invalid.

(E) The legislature may, by statute or rule, make such further provisions for the timely passage of bills making the basic appropriations as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution.

(F) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as requiring the legislature to make any appropriation not otherwise required by this Constitution to be made.

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this amendment, any resolution authorizing the consideration of a bill proposing a local law adopted before November 8, 2016 March 5, 2024, that conformed to the rules of either body of the Legislature at the time it was adopted, is ratified, approved, validated, and confirmed, and the application of any such resolution is effective from the date of original adoption.

FURTHER, I proclaim and direct that this proclamation shall be published once a week for the four successive weeks immediately preceding Tuesday, March 5, 2024, in every county as required by law.

Our youngest grandson Cannon has quickly gone from a wobbly walk to a slow run and now is getting ready to head to a gymnastics class to help with his coordination, and to meet some new friends at the same time. Being an only child keeps him with his parents and grandparents most of the time. So, Melanie is hoping the new weekly outing will pay dividends in more ways than one.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers had a busy week on the baseball diamond and if nothing else gained a lot of experience as they lost all three games and allowed an average of over 15 runs per game. While the final stats didn't look too good, the Tigers actually owned an 8-1 lead in their first game in the fifth inning before losing in ten innings, and in game two were tied at 1-1 in the fifth before losing late. Elba had high hopes this season and despite the slow start I still think the Tigers will win their share of games and make a run at the area title before the long season heads down the homestretch.

 The Elba Lady Tigers are scheduled to finally begin their season this week after pushing back the schedule due to the fact seven players are on the very successful Elba High basketball team that headed to Birmingham earlier this week to compete in the Final Four. The late start and lack of quality practice time will no doubt create some problems on the field for a week or two, but this bunch of girls expects to win every time it takes the field, or the court, and appears to be determined to make lots of noise and advance past the region tournament for the first time in years.

 The teams in the area have made the start of the high school baseball and softball seasons a treat for fans. On the baseball field, New Brockton is off to a fast start and appears to have a deep pitching staff that should keep the Gamecocks in the game every time they take the field, while Zion Chapel also has a really good team and will no doubt win its share of games, Kinston has a young team that will only get better and better, and Brantley has a roster filled with winners and will always be a team to keep an eye on. Over on the softball field, the big news in early-season play has come from up at Jack, where the Zion Chapel Lady Rebels won their first nine games and averaged almost 13 runs per game. The Lady Rebels were expected to be a solid team and after less than two weeks of action have shown they may just be one of the top teams in the area. Kinston has lost to Zion Chapel three times, but is much better than its record may indicate and is a 1A contender, while New Brockton also got off to slow start due to its success in basketball and is trying to catch up in a hurry, and Brantley has been busy playing junior varsity games, since most of its varsity team is so young. Hey, if you thought basketball was fun, just wait!

 The latest news concerning Alabama Crimson Tide football program wasn't actually related to anything that 'may' happen on the field next season, but instead what 'will' apparently happen in the pressbox as veteran Bama broadcaster Eli Gold announced he had been terminated after 35 years as the 'Voice of the Tide.' Early reports stated Gold had retired after missing most of last season due to a bout with cancer, but late in the week he told state media he had not retired and while his health was fine, the university chose not to bring him back. The school announced Chris Stewart, a member of the broadcast team since 1998 and the voice of Alabama men's basketball, would take over the role held by Gold since 1988. Gold also reported that while he was originally told he would be the play-by-play announcer of the A-Day game, that too has been changed as the school has decided to make a clean break. I have been a fan of Eli Gold for many years as an Alabama fan, and while I know changes take place, it doesn't mean I have to like them, and so far I have to say I have liked very few up at Tuscaloosa.

 Over 11,000 college football players got the chance to be a part of the EA Sports College Football 25 video game last week when EA Sports announced it had finalized its name, image and likeness plan and would begin signing up players. Up to 85 players per school will appear on game rosters set to come out this summer, and all the players on the roster will reportedly receive $600, plus a copy of the game, valued at $70. Athletes will remain in the game for their careers and receive annual payments, but can opt out of future editions. EA Sports stated there will be more than 100 additional NIL opportunities for athletes to work with the company through social media posts, on-campus promotions, ads and perhaps being the game's featured cover player. All 134 FBS schools have agreed to join the game, while no FCS schools will be included. I wonder if when the salaries of agents and accountants is added up if the NIL packages are really worth as much as advertised?

 In closing.... Amateur sports may soon be just a thing of the past since a federal judge in Tennessee ruled last week that the NCAA cannot dictate rules dealing with NIL and players may actually negotiate contracts with colleges during the recruiting process. The ruling came after the NCAA notified the University of Tennessee it was being investigated for improper use of NIL. So, the folks at the university found a local judge that is obviously a Vols fan and are now out of the dog house and the NCAA was left with basically no power to enforce any rules dealing with NIL. I guess now instead of a college coach telling a potential player how he will help the program, the player will tell the coach he wants a million dollars to sign and will head to the school that pays the most.

Elba Tigers drop three straight to open season

The Elba Tigers opened the high school baseball season last week with a busy three-game schedule and found wins hard to come by as they dropped all three games.

Following are recaps of last week's three games:

Samson 14 Elba 13 (10 innings)

The Elba Tigers opened their baseball season last Monday afternoon on the road in Samson and saw an 8-1 fifth inning lead slip away in a disappointing 14-13, ten-inning loss to the Samson Tigers.

Elba took advantage of Samson errors and an rbi single by Brady Johnson to grab a 4-0 second inning lead, and carried a 4-1 lead into the top of the fifth inning, where the Tigers added four more runs to extend their lead to 8-1. Kaleb Mitchell ripped a one-out double to spark the fifth inning fireworks, while Easton McKelvy added an rbi single as Elba appeared to take command by opening up a big 8-1 advantage.

Samson scored once in the bottom of the fifth to pull within 8-2, then took advantage of a hit batter and a walk to open the sixth inning as it added two runs to cut the Elba lead to 8-4.

The Tigers upped their lead to 9-4 in the top of the seventh when McKelvy drew a walk and later scored on a passed ball. However, after recording a quick out in the bottom of the, Elba made costly errors and watched as Samson rallied to pull even at 9-9.

Elba stranded two runners on base in the eighth inning, but scored four runs in the tenth and once again appeared in command as it moved ahead 13-9. Collin Arnold reached on an error and circled the bases on Samson mistakes to put the Tigers back on top, while Kaleb Mitchell and Brayden Johnson were both hit by a pitch and later scored as the Tigers took a 13-9 lead.

Samson was down, but not out, and combined four walks with a hit batter and two base hits to stage the game's final rally and handed the visiting Tigers the 14-13 extra-inning defeat.

Kaleb Mitchell had 2 hits and scored 3 runs to lead Elba at the plate, while Easton McKelvy added 1 hit, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi; Cameron Gray added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; Brayden Johnson added 1 hit and scored 3 runs; and, Brady Johnson added 1 hit and 1 rbi. Five Elba pitchers combined to pitch nine and two-thirds innings and allowed eight earned runs on 10 hits and 15 walks, while recording 18 strikeouts.

New Brockton 9 Elba 1

The Elba Tigers jumped out to an early 1-0 lead and were tied at 1-1 after four innings, only to see the New Brockton Gamecocks score eight runs in their final three at-bats in a 9-1 home loss on Thursday night.

Elba grabbed a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning when Brady Johnson drew a one-out walk, moved to third on a single by Ty Sieving and scored on a fielder's choice off the bat of Kaleb Mitchell, but left the bases loaded as the Tigers missed a chance to take command early.

New Brockton pulled even at 1-1 in the second without the need of a hit, and then scored three runs in the fifth, with the key hits being an rbi single by Hunter Pope and a sacrifice fly off the bat of Trent Smith. An rbi double by Payton Green in the sixth upped New Brockton's lead to 5-1, and Hunter White delivered a two-run single in the seventh as the Gamecocks plated four runs to claim the 9-1 win.

Kaleb Mitchell had 1 hit and 1 rbi to lead Elba, while Ty Sieving and Jay Wilson both added 1 hit, and Brady Johnson scored 1 run. Cameron Gray, Ty Sieving and Jay Wilson combined to pitch seven innings and allowed five earned runs on five hits and four walks, while striking out seven.

Blake Peterson had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi to lead the Gamecocks, while Payton Green and Hunter Pope both added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi, and Hunter White added 1 hit and two rbi's. Payton Green, Dalton Holloway and Hunter White combined to pitch seven innings and allowed one earned run on three hits, while striking out 10.

Luverne 23 Elba 8

The Elba Tigers saw an early 3-0 lead vanish in a lopsided 23-8 road loss to Luverne, in Friday night action.

Elba came out determined to put runs on the scoreboard and did just that as the Tigers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first. A leadoff walk to Cameron Gray and a single by Jay Wilson put the Tigers in business, and when Ty Sieving reached on an error, Williams raced home to put Elba on top 1-0. Kaleb Mitchell followed with an rbi single to drive in Wilson, and Sieving later scored on a fielder's choice off the bat of Brady Johnson as the Tigers lead grew to 3-0.

Luverne wasn't down for long; however, as it plated nine runs in the bottom of the first and seven more in the second to open up a 16-3 lead. Elba scored two runs in the third on a bases loaded walk to Brady Johnson and a fielder's choice off the bat of Jaden Baker to stay alive, but Luverne added five runs in its half of the frame to up its lead to 21-5, and while the Tigers put three runs on the scoreboard in the fourth, sparked by a two-run single by Kaleb Mitchell, it was not enough as Luverne rolled to the 23-8 win.

Kaleb Mitchell had 3 hits and 3 rbi's to lead Elba at the plate, while Ty Sieving added 1 hit, scored 3 runs and had 1 rbi; Jay Wilson and Collin Arnold both added 1 hit and scored 1 run; and, Easton McKelvy added 1 hit and 1 rbi. Arnold, Johnson, McKelvy and Powell Bane all pitched in the loss an allowed 12 earned runs on 11 hits and 13 walks.
